Regarding fake online social network advertisements

A fake online advertisement using our company name has been identified, and our product images were used without our permission. These advertisements are not affiliated with Fuji in any way. We do not produce any of the capsules advertised.

Please do not trust information other than our official website or official social network page. If you find any suspicious advertisements or links, do not click on them as your personal information or money can be stolen through these malicious advertisements.

As we are striving for the safe online environment for our official websites, we appreciate your understanding and cooperation.
